

Felice Dunas is an international public speaker, consultant, executive coach, and best-selling author who has taught in the industry for more than 30 years and lectured in more than 60 countries around the world. She has worked with high-level corporate executives on six continents to help them maintain a healthy, balanced life. She is also one of the founders of the Acupuncture industry in the United States and she single-handedly introduced the subject of human sexuality to the Oriental Medicine profession.

Before earning a bachelor's degree in Sociology/International Health Care from UCLA, Felice served a three-year apprenticeship in San Francisco with noted Japanese and Korean acupuncturists. She completed her doctorate degree in Clinical Chinese Medicine and Pharmacology in 1988. Dr. Dunas is now a senior practitioner who has developed an extensive private practice in the Los Angeles area utilizing both Western and Oriental medical techniques.

Felice bases her teaching technique on the Universal Truths that she has learned about in her medical training. She uses her understanding of these Universal Truths, human behavior, and the human body to enhance people's lives through six main aspects of health: Physical, Mental, Emotional, Spiritual, Relationship and Sexual.

She is here with us today to help us improve our health, happiness, and quality of life, so let's give a warm welcome to Dr. Felice Dunas.
